VALENTINE ALT was one of the Palatines who came to America on the ship Davy, William Patton, Commander, from Amsterdam, but last from Cowes in England. Before being allowed to remain in America they had to qualify by taking an oath of allegiance. He took this oath at the court house in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on Oct. 25, 1738. (2) This oath was as follows, "We, natives, subscribers and late inhabitants of the Palatinate upon the Rhine and places adjacent and having transported ourselves and our families into this province of Pennsylvania, a colony subject to Great Britain, in hopes of finding a retreat and peaceable settlement -- do solemnly promise and engage that we will be faithful and bear true allegiance to his Majesty King George II and his successors of Great Britain -- bemean ourselves peaceably and conform to the laws of England and the province to the utmost in our power and understanding."

By Feb. 5, 1744 he was living in that part of Philadelphia Co., now and since 1784, included in Montgomery County, in the area of Faulkner Swamp. The New Hanover Lutherine Church there recorded the following concerning the children of VALENTINE and CATHERINE ALT: (3)

INTRODUCTION

"WHENCE WE CAME AND WHITHER WE GO SHOULD BE INDELIBLY IMPRESSED UPON THE MIND OF AN UPRIGHT PEOPLE, BLESSED WITH INTELLIGENCE AND AMBITION TO PAVE THE WAY FOR GENERATIONS TO FOLLOW AS DID THE ANCESTORS OF OUR FAMILY.

THE LIVES OF OUR FOREFATHERS PROVIDE INSPIRATION TO US, AND THROUGH US, TO OUR CHILDREN AND ALL FUTURE GENERATIONS OF OUR FAMILIES; AND SO LET US LEARN OF THEM,-- WHAT THEY DID AND HOW THEY KEPT THE TRUST REPOSED IN THEM THAT WE MAY BE ENABLED TO PASS FORWARD TO OUR POSTERITY AN UNBROKEN CHAIN OF RECOLLECTIONS OF GOOD DEEDS IN ORDER THAT THEY MAY EARNESTLY STRIVE NOT ONLY TO PERPETUATE THE PROUD PAST BUT ALSO REACH NOBLER HEIGHTS AND SET A HIGH ATTITUDE FOR THEIR OWN DESCENDENTS DOWN THROUGH THE AGES UNTIL TIME IS NO MORE."

(MEDIS RESEARCH BUREAU)

THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION AND RECORDS HAVE BEEN COLLECTED OVER A LONG PERIOD OF YEARS FROM OUR PARENTS AND GRANDPARENTS AND VARIOUS MEMBERS OF THEIR FAMILIES; FROM COUNTY RECORDS, COURT RECORDS, CENSUS RECORDS, BIBLE RECORDS ETC. MUCH OF THE INFORMATION ON VALENTINE AULT (ALT) WAS OBTAINED FROM A BOOK ENTITLED "VALENTINE ALT (AULT), HIS CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN" COMPILED BY NELLIE WALLACE REESER, A DESCENDENT OF VALENTINE. THIS BOOK CAN BE FOUND IN THE GENEALOGICAL LIBRARIES IN NEW YORK CITY, CHICAGO AND INDIANAPOLIS. MISS REESER HAS RECENTLY HAD A VERY COMPLETE HISTORY OF THE AULT FAMILY PUT ON MICROFILM AND PLACED IN THE GENEALOGICAL LIBRARY IN INDIANAPOLIS, IND. AND THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS IN WASHINGTON D.C.

THE RECORDS GIVEN HERE ARE AS ACCURATE AS IT WAS POSSIBLE TO GET THEM. EARLY BIRTHS, MARRIAGES AND DEATHS WERE NOT LEGALLY RECORDED AND WERE OBTAINED FROM CHURCH RECORDS AND FROM VARIOUS MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY WHO HAD PERSONALLY RECORDED THEM.

SOME INFORMATION WAS GATHERED FROM CENSUS RECORDS AND THEY VARIED SOME IN THE DATES AND SPELLING OF NAMES.

IT IS GENERALLY RECOGNIZED THAT THE RECORDS OF THE EARLY DUTCH REFORM AND LUTHERAN CHURCHES ARE THE MOST COMPLETE AND BEST PRESERVED OF ALL EARLY FAMILY RECORDS. IN SOME INSTANCES THEY ARE THE ONLY RECORDS. IN THESE THERE ARE MANY DISCREPANCIES AS TO SPELLING AND DATES DUE TO DIFFERENT NATIONALITIES, LACK OF EDUCATION AND THE FACT THAT MANY SPELLED PHONETICALLY.

IN THIS COMPILATION EACH GENERATION IS DESIGNATED BY THE ROMAN NUMERALS. THE SMALL NUMBERS IN PARENTHESIS AS (2) ARE REFERENCES TO SOURCE MATERIAL LISTED IN THE BACK OF THIS BOOK.

THIS MATERIAL WAS COMPILED BY ESTHER VAN AKEN, DAUGHTER OF STELLA AULT WHITE, AND PUBLISHED IN 1969.

II. VALENTINE AULT (ALT).....(I. VALENTINE)

VALENTINE AULT WAS BORN MARCH 22, 1750. After his father's death he became a ward of GEORGE MYER AND PHILLIP ZIEGLER, on NOV. 28, 1759. (12) On MAY 26, 1761 his guardians petitioned orphans court to approve, and the court did approve the following indenture for VALENTINE'S apprenticeship: (13) (to teach the apprentice the art and mystery of a shoemaker, to read the Bible, to write, and arithmetic as far as the rule of three direct, and to furnish and allow meat, drink, washing and lodging during the term. At the expiration, thereof, to pay unto him one set of tools belonging to his trade and two suits of apparel, one shall be new and of value of six pounds in money which said apprentice then chuse.")

VALENTINE II seems to have been married twice, both wives bearing the name CATHERINE. The first one was a daughter of PETER LAU of York Co., Pa., as stated in the will of PETER, filed at York Co., Pa., March 14, 1806, according to this will CATHERINE was already deceased. (14) She was an aunt of MRS. PHILLIP AULT (14 & 15) of Belmont Co., Ohio, and of MRS. VALENTINE AULT of Wayne Co., Ohio. Evidence of or that there was a second wife, also named CATHERINE, is found in several Belmont Co. deeds, a late one bearing the wife's name dated April 19, 1820.

St. Paul's Reformed (Wolf's) Church, W. Manchester Township, York Co., Pa., shows the following record concerning the children of VALENTINE II AND CATHERINE AULT:

	10-14-1781
SUSANNA	1-15-1784	CHRISTINE HOLLAND AND

St. Paul's (Ziegler's) Church, No. Cordorus Township, York Co., Pa., shows this record:

MICHAEL	b. 11-9-1786	MICHAEL NEWMAN AND
	baptized 2-17-1787	SUSANNA LAU

There were three other children, FREDERICK, GEORGE AND CATHERINE who signed deeds transferring their interest in VALENTINE'S estate to THOMAS GENIN, as shown later.

On Feb. 18, 1776 (16) VALENTINE II obtained title to 45 and 3/4 acres of land in Cordorus Township. Original assessment rolls of Cordorus Township, York Co., Pa., carry VALENTINE'S name for the years 1778, 1779, 1781, 1783, 1786.

Beginning with 1789 and continuing through 1796 his name appears on tax rolls of Sommerset Township, Washington Co., Pa.

VALENTINE was still in Faulkners Swamp in Feb. 1755 (10) but by April 13 of that year he settled in York Co., Pa. (9) He was married twice, both wives having the name CATHERINA.

VALENTINE ALT (AULT) signed his will in York Co., Pa. on July 18, 1755 and it was admitted there for probate on Jan. 10, 1756. (II) An English translation of his will is given in the book "VALENTINE ALT, HIS CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN" by Nellie Wallace Reeser. In this will he names ADAM as the oldest surviving child and JACOB as the second son. It is thought that both were born before VALENTINE came to this country.

II. VALENTINE (CONTINUED)

On May 4, 1792 VALENTINE II obtained title to a tract of land "BLACKWOOD" 78 acres 58 perches on Pigeon Creek, Sommerset Township, Washington Co., Pa. On Sept. 20, 1797 VALENTINE II AND HIS WIFE CATHERINE, deeded this land to JOHN OGILBEE. (17)

Federal census records for VALENTINE ALT are as follows:

1790 (AS FELTY AULT) Washington Co., Pa.

1820 Belmont Co., Ohio.

On Oct. 25, 1798 (18) VALENTINE obtained title to 100 acres in Belmont Co., Ohio -- this land is on McMahon's Creek, supposed to be in Jefferson Co., but a later survey showed it to be in Belmont Co. Beginning with this tract of land he bought and sold many pieces of land in Belmont Co., up to and including the year 1824, as shown by deeds in the Office of Recorder at St. Clairsville.

VALENTINE ALT served the American Revolution War as following references show:

GEORGE AULT served with his brother JACOB as administrator of his father's (VALENTINE'S) estate. (24) GEORGE and his wife MARGARET (POLLY) signed a deed conveying their interest in VALENTINE'S estate in Belmont Co., Ohio, to THOMAS GENIN, on Feb. 4, 1828. (25)

As late as May 1, 1833 GEORGE AND POLLY made a deed of land in Belmont Co. to a new owner. (26)

After the death of POLLY, GEORGE married AMY BATTIN, June 14, 1836 in Belmont Co., Ohio. (27) According to HINSHAW'S AMERICAN QUAKER GENEALOGY she was born 1-23-1810, the daughter of SAMUEL AND SARAH BATTIN (Vol. IV, Ohio, pg. 174) It is thought that the BATTINS came from Scotland. SAMUEL was the son of THOMAS AND REBECCA BATTIN of Washington Co., Pa. His wife SARAH was the daughter of CLEMENT AND SARAH RIGGS. SAMUEL BATTIN AND SARAH RIGGS were married 8-22-1795. (See the record of CLEMENT RIGGS in HINSHAW'S QUAKER RECORDS.)

GEORGE AULT and his family moved to Brown Co., Ind., about 1854 and lived near Pikes Peak, Ind. They attended church at Beck's Grove. He lived here until 1869 when he went to Illinois.

Members of the family relate the following: "JESSE, MARTIN, JACOB, HENRY AND THEIR HALF BROTHERS ANDREW AND VALENTINE were all in the Civil War. They all got to-gether in camp one night. All six were six feet tall, and each weighed over 200 lbs. with less than 10 lbs. difference in their weight. MARTIN was killed in service, and JACOB was severely wounded." JESSE AND HENRY were in Co. C of the Indiana Volunteer Regiment. A monument was later erected in Pikes Peak in honor of the soldiers of the Civil War from Brown Co. JESSE was the first volunteer and his name heads the list; the next being that of HENRY AULT.

In later life GEORGE AND AMY lived with their son LEVI in Moultrie Co., Ill. (See census for this Co.) According to the children of HENRY, LEVI AND LEWIS lived on a farm near the town of Lake City. GEORGE died there about 1875 and is buried at Los Grove Cemetery, Macon, Co., Ill. After his death AMY lived with her son LEWIS, who never married until after her death, 1-16-1891. It is thought that she is buried in Newman Cemetery, Douglas Co., Ill.

Jesse Ault came to Indiana in 1854 with his father and mother, George and Amy Ault. They lived on a farm in Brown Co. near Pikes Peak. In 1861 JESSE, HENRY, MARTIN, JACOB and half brothers ANDREW AND VALENTINE enlisted and served in the Civil War. JESSE was in many of the leading battles of the War, including the "march to the sea." He was wounded twice. He was discharged from Co. C, 6th Indiana Regiment, Infantry, on Oct. 22, 1864, having served three years. In 1925 a monument was erected at Pikes Peak, Ind. in honor of the soldiers from that area. JESSE was the first volunteer and his name headed the list, that of his brother HENRY was second on the monument.

JESSE AND JANE lived near Pikes Peak, Brown Co., and attended Beck's Grove Church until about 1872 when they moved to Morgan Co., near Martinsville where MARY ETTA, STELLA, FRED AND DEBORAH were born.

In March 1885 the family moved to a farm northeast of Tipton, Ind. In a short time they bought a farm near Windfall, Ind. where they lived many years. JESSE was energetic, industrious and not easily discouraged. He built a comfortable frame house to replace the old log house and raised good crops on his farm.

In 1905 JESSE suffered a stroke of paralysis and was confined to crutches or a wheel chair the rest of his life. Due to poor health of both JESSE AND JANE they left the farm and moved to Leisure, Ind. Madison Co., where they resided till death. They were members of the Christian Church for 34 years. JESSE died at Leisure on March 15, 1915 and was buried in Brookside Cemetery at Windfall, Ind. where FRED AND JESSE JR. were buried. Deed book Vol. 64, p. 568, Nov. 13, 1915 shows the settlement of his estate.

IV. JESSE AULT CONTINUED:

JANE AULT was a tiny, plump woman and very proud. After her husband's death she lived with her daughter AMY and her two girls in the family home at Leisure. She was born at Houston, Ind., Jackson Co., on April 11, 1850. She was the daughter of SAMUEL AND DEBORAH BRIDGEWATER PRUITT who lived in Brown Co., and are buried in the old cemetery at Beck's Grove. She was one of ten children. See DEBORAH AND SAMUEL PRUITT records elsewhere in this compilation.

JANE died Oct. 8, 1932 at the age of 82 and was buried beside her husband in Brookside Cemetery at Windfall, Ind.

In 1932 JANE'S brother JOHN PRUITT and his wife were living in the old family home where JESSE AND JANE went to housekeeping. In 1960 JOHN and his wife had passed away and their son RAY was living on the farm. The original house had burned and a new one built.

At Beck's Grove Church there is an old cemetery where many of the family were buried. In 1960 it had been abandoned and the road to it closed. A new cemetery near by had been established and here are buried the AULT, PRUITT, PHILLIPS AND CARMICHAEL families; all were related.

JAMES EARL RAY was a slim, young man with wavy brown hair. He lived with his daughter and son in the family home at 1010 North 1st Street, St. Louis, Mo., on April 11, 1968. He was the daughter of JAMES EARL RAY and KATHLEEN RAY. He was one of two children. His mother and father were also in this family.

RAY was born on April 11, 1928 at the age of 39 and was buried beside her husband in the St. Louis Cemetery at St. Louis, Mo.

In 1968 JAMES EARL RAY and his wife were living in the old family home at 1010 North 1st Street, St. Louis, Mo. In 1968 RAY and his wife had a son named JAMES EARL RAY, JR. who was living on the farm. The original house had a porch and a new one built.

At St. Louis there is an old cemetery where many of the family were buried. In 1968 it was abandoned and the land is now a park. The cemetery was by and large established and there are buried the RAY family. RAY and KATHLEEN RAY were buried.

IV. HENRY AULT (III. GEORGE, II. VALENTINE, I. VALENTINE)

b. 8-8-1844 IN BELMONT CO., OHIO.

Moved with his parents to Brown Co., Ind. in 1854. HENRY enlisted in the Union Army on Aug. 20, 1861 at the age of 17. He was in the 6th Indiana Volunteer Infantry, Company C, having enlisted at Columbus, Ind. His older brother, JESSE, was the first volunteer and was in the same Company. HENRY served in the Army three years and nine months. The two major battles in which he took part were those of Stone River near Marfeesha, Tenn., and the Battle of Chickamagus. He was taken prisoner and sent to the Royster Prison in Richmond, Va., and later to Danville, Va. while in prison he became ill with small pox, and on Jan. 2, 1864 was sent to the small pox hospital. He was paroled on May 8, 1864 and being too weak to walk, he was retained in parole camp until Sept. 22, 1864, being sent to Annapolis, Maryland, then to Camp Chase, Ohio, and later to Indianapolis, Ind. From here he returned to his home. In a short while he re-enlisted and served through the remainder of the war. He was in Hancock's Veteran Reserve Corps and was sent to Camp Stoneman, close to Washington, D.C. He was in this camp when President Lincoln was assassinated. Part of his service was under General Sherman in the Army of the Cumberland.

In the fall of 1865 HENRY met MARTHA S. STOCKDALE at a Baptist Meeting in South Bethany, Ind. On Oct. 20, 1867 they were married at the home of MARTHA'S brother by Squire Blizzard in Bartholomew Co., Ind. To this union were born eight children. They are:

The family left Indiana and went to Illinois in 1884. They lived near Lake City & Broadlands, Ill. for 14 years.

In 1885 they moved by covered wagon to Colorado. Enroute they spent that winter at Ashland, Nebraska, with a brother of MARTHA. In the spring they continued on to Colorado and settled at Iliff, Colo. where they lived about 6 years. In the spring of 1891 they continued on to Placerville, Colo. and then to Norwood where HENRY engaged in the cattle business for 17 years. In 1895 he started a stage line from Placerville to Naturita, Colo.

In 1907 HENRY retired from business and with his wife moved to Los Angeles, Cal., where they spent many happy years together. In 1917 they celebrated their Golden Anniversary. MARTHA passed away on Aug. 8, 1924 and was buried in the Odd Fellows Cemetery, Los Angeles.

MARTHA STOCKDALE AULT was born at Zanesville, Ohio, on Aug. 11, 1847. Her parents were DAVID AND MARY JANE STOCKDALE. DAVID was born Oct. 2, 1808 and MARY JANE LINDSAY was born May 30, 1815 in Ohio.

After the death of his wife, HENRY lived at the Old Soldiers Home at Sawtelle, Cal. which is now known as the Veterans Administration Facility at Los Angeles. He passed away on Feb. 22, 1935 and is buried in the cemetery there.

HENRY gave the following information about greenbacks and banking during the Civil War: "There were no national banks prior to the Civil War. The States issued money in the form of greenbacks and silver. Michigan and Virginia were the only two states which had solvent banks and were the only states allowed to send money anywhere in the United States. The greenbacks were first issued due to lack of silver. They were called "shinplasters" and were like our one dollar bill, being three inches long and two inches wide." It is said that HENRY married CORA NEFF about 1930 (40)
